ATTACHMENT (S) : Ordinance Serial No. 26-081 (5 pp)
 SB 143 (8 pp)
 School Board Terms (2 pp)
 Assembly Terms (2 pp)

SUMMARY STATEMENT: This ordinance is sponsored by Assemblymembers Fonov, McKee, and Bernier to change the School Board terms from 3 years to 4 years. In addition, the change will provide for transitory terms so that the School Board District seats and Assembly District seats are aligned for the terms so that the elections for each coincide. The proposal here must be ratified by the voters, so this ordinance will place the matter before the qualified areawide voters at the November 3, 2026 regular election.

As of the terms beginning in 2026 Borough Assemblymembers will serve 4 year terms. However, School Board members currently serve three year terms under the provisions of state law found at AS 14.12.050(a) and AS 29.20.300(a). The provisions of those state laws did not allow for the ability to change the length of School Board terms. However, on May 17, 2025, the Alaska Legislature passed SB 143 which, in part, amended AS 14.12.050(a) and AS 29.20.300. Under the new provisions of law, an ordinance approved by voters may alter the terms of office for the School Board. The ordinance here will change the School Board terms from 3 years to 4 years in length.

In addition to changing the length of School Board terms, the terms will be aligned with the Assembly Districts. Currently, the Matanuska-Susitna Borough School Board and Assembly have seats with the following expiration of terms:

Position	Term Ending	Position	Term Ending	Next Term Ending
School District 1	2027	Assembly District 1	2026	2030
School District 2	2028	Assembly District 2	2026	2030
School District 3	2026	Assembly District 3	2028	2032
School District 4	2027	Assembly District 4	2026	2030
School District 5	2028	Assembly District 5	2026	2030
School District 6	2026	Assembly District 6	2028	2032
School District 7	2028	Assembly District 7	2028	2032

To make the districts align, all School District seats except for District 7 will need one transition term of a shorter length. After this single transition term, every seat will have a 4 year term.

Position	Term Ending	Transition term	Term Ending
School District 1	2027	3 years	2030
School District 2	2028	2 years	2030
School District 3	2026	2 years	2028
School District 4	2027	3 years	2030
School District 5	2028	2 years	2030
School District 6	2026	2 years	2028
School District 7	2028	none	2032

By using less than a 4 year term as a shortened transition term, all School Board seats and Assembly District seats will be aligned by 2030 and will all have 4 year terms thereafter.

By moving to 4 year terms, the Matanuska-Susitna Borough can then decide if it wants to continue to have annual elections, or whether to move to a bi-annual cycle as the State of Alaska does. There are efficiencies to be gained and potential cost savings of such a proposal, but that final decision is not addressed in this ordinance.

To be effective, this proposal must be approved by the voters. Therefore, a ballot question is contained placing the matter before the qualified areawide voters at the upcoming November 3, 2026 regular borough election.

RECOMMENDATION OF ADMINISTRATION: Introduce and set for public hearing.
